ABSTRACT

Varied sources for information on Arkansas held by the Arkansas University library are listed. Bibliographies and indexes of Arkansas publications are included, as well as materials dealing with the state's folklore and literature, arts and humanities, government and law, business and economics, social conditions, labor, history and biography, education, and agriculture and environment. Census materials, including the U.S. government's economic, housing and population, and transportation census materials, are listed, along with state maps and atlases. Full bibliographic citations include call numbers and some listings are annotated. (MBR)
